

Social Media Standards

Social Media is important to the work of Bicycle NSW and our channels are updated and moderated between 8am and 4:30pm Monday to Friday (AEST/AEDT), excluding public holidays. Accounts may be monitored outside of business hours, subject to staff availability.

You can find us on these social media channels:

Bicycle NSW publishes and republishes (e.g. 'retweet', 'share' or reference) social media content (e.g. tweets, events, posts, photographs) containing information or links to material of relevance to riders.

We may also 'follow' or 'like' organisations or individuals involved with, or actively discussing relevant issues. This doesn't necessarily mean we agree with everything that organisation does or says.

Terms of use

We welcome questions and commentary on our social media pages, but we expect users to be relevant and respectful. We reserve the right to remove photographs or posts that are threatening, insulting, use obscene or defamatory language, incite violence, invade privacy, condone or encourage illegal activity, or that are irrelevant.

If you are referring to someone else's photo, other arguments or reference material, please cite or link it.

Some discussions may relate to current or impending legal matters. Everyone has the right to a fair trial and the presumption of innocence until proven guilty. It may be necessary to moderate or remove comments that undermine due process or these rights.
